

#IAMIMMIGRATION UNITES VOICES SUPPORTING IMMIGRATION REFORM

The campaign engages industries across the economy to help fix the nation's broken immigration system.

Immigration affects everyone from scientists to entrepreneurs, from farmers to students. Over the next several months the campaign will engage each of these groups and more to push for reform.

Starting with #i farm immigration, the first month of the campaign will focus on the agriculture sector. Eighty percent of America's seasonal workers are foreign born and so our farmers face severe worker shortages because of our inefficient, complex visa system. Without those workers, fields go untilled, crops spoil, and hundreds of millions of dollars in economic potential go to waste. We're partnering with the American Farm Bureau, the Agriculture Workforce Coalition, the Western Growers Association, AmericanHort, and others to show how urgently farmers need reform. We will launch a series of initiatives, including:

- + Research on labor shortages.
- + Farm tours around the country.
- + Op-Eds from farmers telling their own stories.
- + Roundtables with members of Congress.
- + Capitol Hill Briefing with agriculture leaders.

To learn more about the campaign, visit iamimmigration.org or e-mail info@renewoureconomy.org.

About Partnership for a New American Economy

The Partnership for a New American Economy brings together more than 500 Republican, Democratic and Independent mayors and business leaders who support immigration reforms that will help create jobs for Americans today. The Partnership's members include mayors of more than 35 million people nationwide and business leaders of companies that generate more than $1.5 trillion and employ more than 4 million people across all sectors of the economy, from Agriculture to Aerospace, Hospitality to High Tech and Media to Manufacturing. Partnership members understand that immigration is essential to maintaining the productive, diverse and flexible workforce that America needs to ensure prosperity over the coming generations. Learn more at www.RenewOurEconomy.org.